

West Midlands School Leaders Conference 2018

The School Led System – Getting Down to Business

About the ORGANISERS

The conference is jointly organised and hosted by:

- Teaching School Council

The Teaching Schools Council (TSC) is a body representing all Teaching Schools and working with System Leaders across England promoting an inclusive school-led system. In a self-improving system, our role includes inspiring, encouraging and supporting so that every child goes to a great school.

- TSC West Midlands

Representing Teaching Schools and their alliances in the West Midlands. Working together for a truly inclusive school-led system. The TSC West Midlands Representative is Richard Gill, CEO at The Arthur Terry School in Sutton Coldfield

- Alliance of Leading Learning

The Alliance of Leading Learning (ALL) is an extended Teaching School Alliance as part of the Marches Academy Trust, providing gold standard professional learning to those new to teaching, to schools requiring support and to the exemplary educational leaders of the future - ensuring we impact learners, leaders and schools and drive continuous improvement.

- The Arthur Terry Learning Partnership

The Arthur Terry Learning Partnership is a multi-academy trust consisting of 4 secondary schools and 5 primary schools across Birmingham, Warwickshire and Staffordshire. An additional 1 secondary school and 2 primary schools are due to join the Partnership in September 2018. The Arthur Terry National Teaching School is a Cohort 1 Teaching School and as such has contributed extensively to the development of the system. Collaboration is at the heart of everything we do with the moral imperative of improving life chances for all.

- Barr Beacon School, Walsall

Barr Beacon School has recently been recognised as an Outstanding school and gained Teaching School status. A traditional school, where values of discipline, courtesy and good manners underpin the drive for academic success, Barr Beacon aims to achieve the very best results from every single pupil and prepare them for the world of work.

- Bournville Junior School Teaching School Alliance

Based in Birmingham, Bournville Junior School Teaching School Alliance is committed to excellence in educational development. Our Teaching School Alliance currently consists of 19 schools and two Higher Education Institutions, we are developing rapidly as we bring in new partners to the Alliance.

- Hebden Green School

Hebden Green are a specialist school for students with a broad range of physical disabilities, medical needs and associated learning difficulties, committed to providing an outstanding blend of education, therapy and care. We work in partnership with a teaching school alliance to enhance teaching and learning at Hebden Green School and across the local area.

- Hempstalls

Hempstalls Teaching School Alliance is a designated teaching school formed in July 2014. Our vision is to improve outcomes for all young people across Staffordshire and the surrounding area. We provide high-quality training that is facilitated by experienced school leaders.

- Manor Teaching School

Manor Primary Teaching School Alliance in Wolverhampton is an outstanding National Teaching School with a proven track record in training and developing the next generation of school leaders and teachers. We work in partnership with other outstanding providers of education, training and professional learning, including the NCTL and the University of Birmingham.

- South Bromsgrove High Teaching School

South Bromsgrove High is leading provider of professional development for teaching professionals across Worcestershire and the West Midlands. As an 'outstanding' school, we deliver high quality support, training and CPD for teachers in every stage of their careers from initial teaching training through to identifying and developing future school leaders.

- Tudor Grange Teaching School, Solihull

Tudor Grange Academy Solihull was awarded Teaching School status in 2012. We provide high quality bespoke training to schools around the West Midlands. This includes primary schools from the Birmingham Diocese in addition to another 35 primary schools that belong to the primary school alliance. Specific, tailored school to school support is provided for both primary and secondary schools that require improvement.
